DESCENDANTS OF
JOSEPH J. STUTZMAN
AND
RACHEL YODER

From The Year 1839 to 1962

Compiled by David J. Mast

Number 72

For some years I had a wish that some of my cousins would write a brief history of our grandfathers. No one responded. With the Lord's help and information of many cousins and friends who gave the information of their family records. I thank everyone.

This work is submitted to the public in good faith that the number of people interested in this genealogy may learn in what way those bearing the name Stutzman are related to each other.

I hope the readers will bear with me and overlook any shortcomings and mistakes. Care was taken to avoid mistakes.

I have tried to give, as nearly as possible, all dates of births, deaths, and marriages correctly. In copying dates from one copy to another, it is very easy to make mistakes.

EXPLANATION

For those who are acquainted with other family record books, this one will need little explaining. I have arranged it on the same plan. I have provided only one index which will be found in the back of this book. In this index each family appears twice. Once with the name of descendant first, followed by its marriage partner, and again just reversed. The number following the name in the index refers to families or paragraphs, not pages. The number following the name of a family head shows its generation from Joseph J. Stutzman.

The second number following the family head is the number of his or her parents.

John Jacob Stutzman (1) arrived in Philadelphia, Pa., October 2, 1727, in the ship, Adventurer, by Capt. John Davies, Master, from Rotterdam Plymouth, England.

John Jacob Stutzman (1) had a son named Jacob Stutzman (2), and he had a son named John (3). In Berlin, Pa., he married Anna Speicher. He died from a broken neck. He was killed instantly when thrown against a tree from a galloping horse that stumbled, Sept. 10, 1833. Their children are Christian, the 4 in line of our ancestors, David, Catherine, Elizabeth, John, Frany, Henry, Susanna, Sarah, Benjamin Yost. Christian Stutzman (4), Berlin, Pa., was born March 9, 1789, and died Feb. 1836. He married Barbara Lehman in 1811. She was born Feb. 2, 1791. Their children were Susan, Polly, Jacob, our great grandfather, the 5th in line of our ancestors, Aberham, Daniel, Christian, Elizabeth, Magdalena. Jacob Stutzman (5) Middlebury, Ind., was born June 11, 1815, and died Aug. 7, 1872, near Berlin, Pa. He married Fanny Lehman. She was born May 10, 1815, and died Nov. 5, 1890. Their children were Samuel, Joseph J., the head of this history book, Mose J., Jacob J., Elizabeth, Barbara, Magdalena, and Herman.

(1) Joseph J. Stutzman (6) Middlebury, Ind., married Jan. 10, 1861, in Somerset Co. Pa. by Jerry Glessner, J.P., to Rachel Yoder, daughter of David Yoder from Somerset Co. Pa. He was born Dec. 22, 1839, and died July 15, 1915. She was born April 20, 1840, and died Nov. 4, 1919. Joseph was ordained Deacon May 21, 1878 through the lot from 10 men and served in his capacity as long as he was able. They moved by wagon when my mother was two years old from Somerset Co. Pa. to Elkhart Co. Ind. in 1866 on the farm where they lived and died. They are both buried in the cemetery on the farm. Joseph, father and mother Jacob Stutzman, and grandmother Rachel, and father David C. Yoder are buried in the same cemetery.

We think grandmother and father David C. Yoder came along by wagon and bought a farm. Then he went back home to Pa. to bring his wife and belongings to Indiana. His wife refused to go along to Indiana. David C. Yoder went back to Indiana, and he sent her money to support her, as long as he lived. He died Nov. 24, 1887.

The following is an account given by Lydia Mae Stutzman of how her husband, Milo, contracted Polio:

On Sunday, Sept. 4, 1949, while in church, Milo Hochstetler started with a backache and seemed to be very tired, which he thought was from working hard. It continued until Tuesday, after which he got a treatment from a chiropractor. Milo came home rather displeased about the treatment, so on Wednesday morning he went back for another treatment. When he had walked a block homeward, he decided surely the doctor had made a mistake, as his back ached more than before, and he was chilling very much. He went back to the office and took another treatment. The doctor sent him home to bed, but that same evening, a medical doctor was called, who diagnosed the case as kidney trouble. He gave him a hypo and pills. Milo slept about one hour. The rest of the night, it was hot water bottles and no rest for anyone. We were thinking it would take time to clear up if it were his kidneys. But he seemed to be in the same stage until late Thursday evening, when we decided to have the doctor again on Friday morning for an examination. He was asked to lift his head, move his arms and legs. Everything seemed to move O K. until the right leg was tried. That he could not manage right. He tried to stand on his feet, but his right leg buckled. Thinking it was Polio, the doctor sent him to the Elkhart Hospital. There he was a Polio patient until March 4, 1950. The pains were very severe at the hospital for three weeks. He was given two hypos every four hours day and night until at the end of three weeks, the pain seemed to leave as did the fever. They gave him the Sister Henry Treatment before he was released and also for a month after he was at home. Next were the Hock Treatment which he tried without success for his legs. Next he went to a man who practiced divine healing. During the year 1951, from June 11, to Sept. 12, he was at the Spears Sanitarium at Denver, Colo. Now, in 1953, Milo is still in a wheel chair and both legs are useless. The left arm was involved too, but that he can use pretty good again. We imagine he will be that way the rest of his life. We want to be satisfied with what the Lord does, for many are the blessings He bestows upon us.

Milo is courageous and has secured employment in a factory where he is working as a disabled person.

The horses were killed instantly, and the wagon was completely demolished. LeRoy was thrown underneath the wreckage. Both of his legs were crushed below the knees, and he suffered greatly from shock. He was taken to the Lucky Hospital at Wolfe Lake, where he died the next day. McGinnis said as his truck approached LeRoy's wagon, a bee flew into the cab of the truck and struck him between the eyes, causing him to lose control of the truck. LeRoy had been cutting his wheat and was enroute home for dinner when the accident occurred. He had only a very short distance to go on Road 6. He was laid to rest in the Hepton cemetery south of Nappanee, Ind.

He is engaged in an occupation that belongs to the past. The Yoders are makers of wool batts and century coverlets. The coverlets of the past, for the most part, have been replaced today by various other types of bed coverings. But the Yoders still find a ready market for their limited output. And in the years that the business has been in operation, since 1947, coverlets have been shipped to nearly every state in the United States. Because of his work, Elkhart County has an increase of 90 per cent in the handling of wool.

Footprints

Have you left some random footprints
On the thoroughfares you trod,
That were yours for testimonials,
Showing how your feet were shod?

Were you careful of impressions,
That you left to mark your past,
Signposts on your way of travel,
Which somehow are there to last.

Have you led some wayward footsteps
Safely from the dang'rous path,
In the ways that have no evil,
Nor a bitter aftermath?

Does it matter where you're stepping,
How the marks you leave will be,
Nor the course you are pursuing,
For your own Eternity?

Yet the pilgrims keep on marching,
As the pioneers have done,
To a fancied Eldorado
Adn the setting western sun.

Footprints for a better morrow,
To attest for what is good,
Leaving joy and inspiration,
For the hope we've understood.

Footprints leading on and upward,
To the Kingdom of our God,
With an influence untarnished,
As the faithful ones may plod.
